

Town of Superior
Historical Commission Meeting
Notes
January 17, 2014

Members of the Commission in attendance: Bob Morgan, Denzil Acklin, Karen Waligorski, Errol Waligorski, Walt Ackerman.

Others in attendance: Pam Lehman (Ranch Capital), Gail Khasawneh, Allyn Jarrett, Lisa Skumatz (Town Board Liaison), Patrick Hammer (Staff).

Agenda Items:

1. Debriefing – December and early January.
 - a. Visits to the Museum during the December and January openings were low.
 - b. Members of the Commission would like to formally thank Karen and Errol Waligorski for hosting the annual holiday potluck on December 15.
2. Discussion – Donated items. Bob Morgan would like to donate to the Museum's collection a pressure cooker from the 1930s that was used by families in the Mine Camp. Danny Kupfner would like to donate to the Museum's collection a railroad tie that is believed to have come from the Denver Tramway. Members of the Commission agreed that both items would add value to the existing collection.
3. Discussion – 2014 Work Plan. Staff handed out copies of the 2014 Work Plan which was finalized during the Commission meeting on November 15, 2013.
4. Discussion – Historic name suggestions. Pam Lehman from Ranch Capital discussed with the group the naming process that will take place for new streets located in the Superior Town Center development. The Commission has been asked to provide the Town Board a prioritized list of historic names to be considered as street names. The finalized list will be provided to the Town Board after the Commission's February 21 meeting.

Next Meeting: February 21, 2014, Town Hall, 10:00 a.m.
